PROBATE COURT OF MOBILE COUNTY, ALABAMA

PRESS RELEASE

TO: ALL MOBILE AREA NEWS MEDIA PRODUCERS

FROM: DON DAVIS

RE: Luther Harris - Candidate for Alabama State Constable Precinct 47 - WILL REMAIN ON THE 2024 GENERAL ELECTION BALLOT

DATE: January 16, 2024

On January 13, 2024, the Alabama Ethics Commission notified the Court that it had mistakenly reported to the Court earlier that Luther Harris of Mobile, Alabama, was not qualified to be a candidate on the 2024 General Election ballot for failure to file a required report with the Alabama Ethics Commission. The Commission reported that in fact Mr. Harris had complied with Alabama law and he had been mistakenly determined not qualified earlier because the address on his report differed from the address on other documentation submitted to the Commission.

Judge Don Davis, chief election officer of Mobile County, announced that Mr. Harris had been notified of the change in his ballot status and confirmed that his name would appear on the 2024 General Election ballot.
